Reflecting on the past ...

"We all take different paths in life, but no matter where we go, we take a little of each other everywhere."~Tim McGraw

Throughout our lives we will embark on many insurmountable journeys, ones that will change our outlooks on life forever. As we are attempting to overcome these obstacles, they seem as if they are the toughest ones we will ever encounter; but after we reach our goals, we will realize that all of the pain and hardships we had to endure, were worth every second. Remember when we were all kids, so carefree and nothing to worry about? Those were the days ...

The 78th volume of De-O-Wain-Sta is dedicated to taking one last look at these precious memories, as we travel down the uncharted path of transition, moving all that we know to a new school. We are approaching a fresh start and new beginning, that of leaving behind the old Rome Free Academy. Although the students won't be passing through these halls anymore, we will never forget the events that took place here. Graduating, going off to college, and losing touch with our friends, the ones we became so fond of during our junior high and high school years, are endeavors that high school students are faced with the reality of, each time we talk about moving on. These are some of the things that we all should be thankful we have experienced, because once we obtain the knowledge we have earned from these adventures, they will make us stronger people in the end. Never lose sight of yourself and who you are, because that is when you will acquire the best friends of all.

Student Life

In 1957, RFA underwent a major addition. The ramp, seen below, connects the old building to the new building. When students change classes, this is the busiest section. In order for a student to go from third floor of the old building to third floor of the new building, they must go down to the second floor and cross the ramp. Anyone who has Spanish first period and English second period is doomed for a "haul" in-between.

Climbing trees boys? Cole Young and Erik Carlson are relaxing in the trees on a beautiful day.

Get me outta here! Kellie McLoughlin is ready to hit the road at 2:27.

Fallen Leaves: Rob Cronk relaxes in the leaves during his lunch period. Hope he isn't allergic!

An excited crowd: The bleachers are filled as the RFA student body excitedly awaits the Homecoming Court finalists. Students were dismissed from 8th period classes, and got all geared up for the weekend's festivities.

Saluting the flag: : RFA's flag bearer, Matt Shaver, in action during the pep rally in October. We showed our school spirit as well as our patriotic side in light of the horrific tragedy on September 11th.

Spirit Week

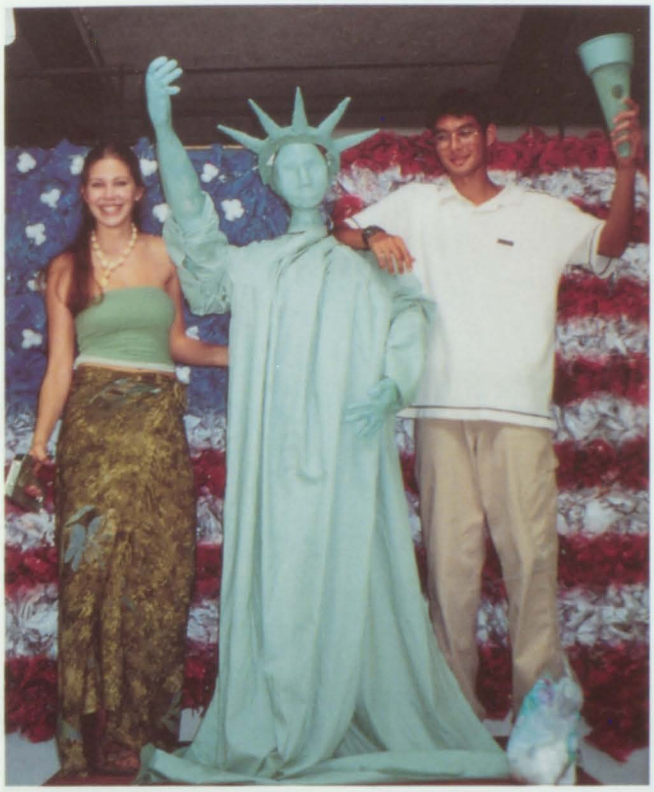
Spirit Week: Every year the students at Rome Free Academy organize a week of dressing up. Tuesday, being Pajama Day, everyone wore their pajama pants and slippers. On Wednesday, College Anything and Hat Day, the students wore their favorite college sweatshirt and hat for the day. Summer set in for the day on Thursday, Summer Lovin' Day, tank-tops and sunglasses were the fashion all day long. Finally, Friday came, RFA Pride Day. The student body strutted around the school in their orange and black sweatshirts, jerseys and pants! This whole week was just the beginning of the much anticipated Pep Rally and Homecoming.

Looking Comfy: Natasha Matwijec, Kristy Hedrick, Tara Baker, Caitlin Rapke and Buddy Wade smile for the camera while wearing their PJs.

Are You A Smart Cookie??: Nichole Goodwin carries her books to her next class, while styling in her Harvard t-shirt.

Hawaiian Style: Hye Yon Yi and Dan Debruin flaunt their hawaiian shirt and the ever popular "Laie".

Is Lady Liberty Hawaiian?: Leslie Keller, all decked out in her beach wear, poses with lady liberty and Doug Wilson for a quick pic.



Ready for College: Lindsey Howland, Johanna Patashnick and Stephanie Swanson wore their favorite college gear during Spirit Week.

Cool on Campus: Chet DiBari and Jamie Hinman smile in their college clothes and favorite hats.

Surfin' U.S.A.: Bryan Desmarais is caught on camera in his cool Hawaiian shirt.

Homecoming

The student body had been preparing all week, with tons of school spirit. The 2001 Homecoming week at Rome Free Academy will be a time that no student or faculty member will forget, including the last Homecoming ever to be held in the old RFA building. All week students could sign up to win a chance to sit in the end zone of the football game Friday night if they dressed in the correct attire for each day. Each student body class (Sophomores, Juniors, and Seniors) worked on floats using the theme of patriotism to present at the pep rally and the most important place, the football game Friday night. The boys played one of their big rivals Corcoran to make a close game. The score ended up being 32-27, Corcoran, but the score does not tell how the Rome boys played. The game went down to the wire, and it was only in the last seconds that Corcoran pulled ahead. Saturday night was the long awaited Homecoming semi, with the theme being "underwater". The Homecoming court girls include Deanna Evans, Jenny Cable, Jackie Fleet, Christie Loreto, and Meghan Penford. The Homecoming court boys were Pat Miller, Sal Costello, Chet DiBari, Adam Boulanger, and Blaine Heck. There was also a special vote for the Homecoming King, which was our own security guard, Lee Brown. Throughout our entire fall sports season we remember the tragedy of September 11th, 2001. Our freedom, which we take for granted, must be valued and cherished.

Class of 2004: Kelly Destito, Rachel Taylor, Ashley Coon, and Ted Tuthill work on the sophomore float the day before homecoming.

Proud to be an American: (Top) The Junior Class float represented NYC due to the tragedies on September 11, 2001.

Sunny days during knight-time action: (Bottom) Justin Cortese, Preetham Poonati, Sal Costello, Kristy Hedrick, Frank Cook, Kevin May, DeAnna Evans, and Jamie Mance show their representation of the 50th state and some skin to go along with it!!

1-2-3-4 Ready, Play: The RFA band is practicing for the big game on Homecoming night.

Hurry up!: The students are quickly filling up the seats for the final pep rally.

Oooo LaLa!: Catie Daniels and Tara Baker show off their million dollar smiles during the semi.

Taking a break from dancing: Kiel Adams and Meghan Penfold take a quick break from tearing it up on the dance floor for a friendly hug.

A Midsummer Night Dream

The 2001 Junior Prom was held from 6:30 to 11 on May 19th at the Rose Lawn. The theme was "A Midsummer Night Dream" and the song was "I knew I loved you" by Savage Garden. The colors were silver and blue. The Ladies in the court were Jessica Guggi, Amanda Donovan, Jenny Cable, Kelly Knudsen, Charity Day and Kim Cianfrocco. The gentlemen in the court were Anthony Mariani, Chad Neidl, Pat Miller, Blaine Heck, Jay Mike Mondrick and Tim Sestito. Everyone looked fantastic and danced the night away.

Quadruple trouble: Matt Ferlo, Mike DeGennaro, Sean Dursi and Nick Facciolo relax after a filling meal.

Two "Jacks" are better than one: Jacklyn Mendiola and Jackie Shoemaker take a time out for a little "girl talk" after some heavy duty dancing.

Taking a breather: Nick Corigliano and Jenny Cable sit down to catch their breath.

Lookin' handsome boys: Matt Vaccaro, Kevin May, Aaron Cagwin, Robert Tucker and Kyle Dempsey show off their stuff.

Livin' it up!: Sara Boulanger, Alana Yerman, Carli Tardugno and Jaclyn Brawdy are having the time of their lives.

Cuttin' a rug: Eric Evans and Nicole Hepworth danced the night away!

Don't Be Afraid To Be You ...

Throughout high school you'll meet many different people and you will begin to realize you are different too, nobody is the same. Never be afraid to be who you are, never try to be someone your not. Later in life you will look back and memories will fill your mind of how you once were, if you try to be someone that your heart doesn't represent then you will be viewing someone else's memories, someone else's dreams someone else's life and not yours. Be proud of who you are and don't take anything for granted because you never know when your life can change. People will accept you if you act yourself and if you don't try to act like them. Use your smile, give your heart, live your life and remember to never be afraid, never be afraid to live, never be afraid of anyone especially yourself and most importantly remember to never be afraid to be you.

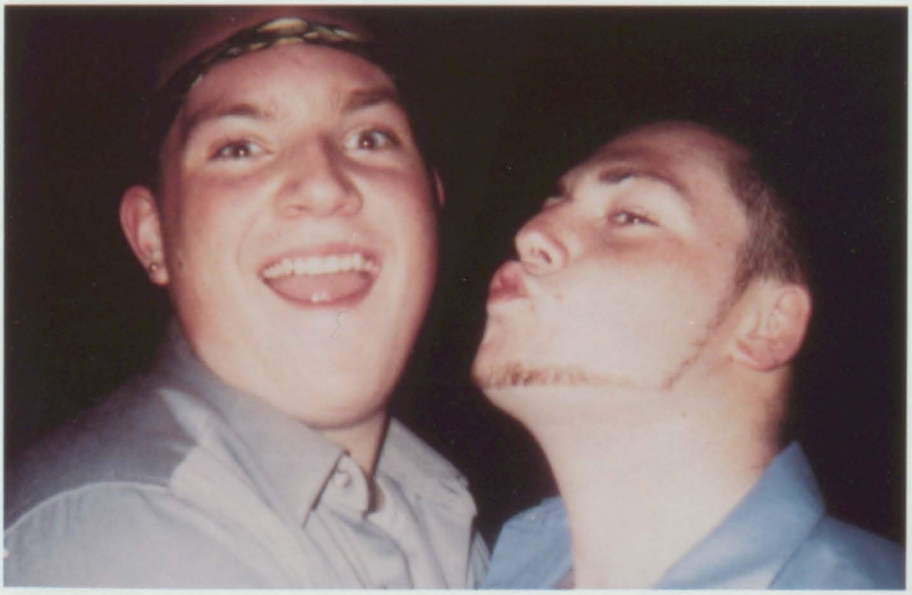
Watch out Dome here comes Rome: Kristen Scanlon and Katherine Norelli pose on the bus as they are traveling to the Dome for the section 3 class A finals for Field Hockey.

Smile girls ...: Kayla Ciaralli and Tonya Bathke take time out from dancing to pose for us ... next they are thinking about doing a little chicken dance for everyone.

Do you hear something?: Brent Boek plays his heart out with the band at City Hall for Breast Cancer Awareness Day.

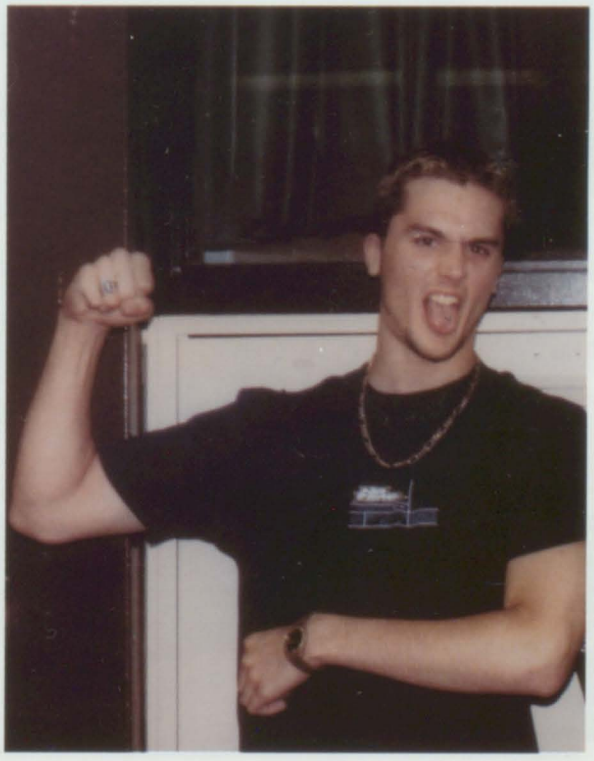
Wow! This girl is not normal: Ashley Esposito stands on top of a toilet in the girl's bathroom looking for her friend that seems to be lost in the next stall.

Look at those Hotties!!!: Brittany Fiorini (Fi) and Nicolina Calandra give us their brightest smiles as we catch them skipping class. Let's go girls!



What a cute couple: Taj Beckwith takes a glance at us while we catch Joe Christofaro in action during the Homecoming semi in October.

Who is that stud muffin?: Mike Smith shows us his masculinity ... don't mess with this kid!!!



In And Around R.F.A.

Throughout the years many people have passed through the hallways of R.F.A. We all had our favorite things to do, whether it was being in the College Room or even the Library. Everyone has their own favorite spots in the school. Even if the class was not interesting you always have that one teacher that makes your day every time you go into their room. He or she makes you feel like a part of something and not just "there." Memories of R.F.A. will be in the minds of everyone for years to come. Every corner of the building means a little something to all of the people who have ever walked the halls.

Listen up: Jessica Price (standing) makes a presentation in history for all her classmates..... I wonder how she did?

I have to dissect what?! Kara Mororui and Anne Burns work hard in biology class separating and identifying owl pellets.

Is it time yet?!: Dana Smith, Nick Neiley, Andrew Cahill, Sean Glantz, and Jimmy Seaton line up at the door before the bell rings 8th period. Please Stay In Your Seats!

I'm almost done: Aaron Coleman does some last minute work before going to class in Mrs. Fi's office.

The former RFA gym, now known as "The Pit", is most often used as a testing room or large study hall. "The Pit" got its name from its unique location in the basement of the school. Many former RFA graduates remember this as their high school gym, but to RFA students today, it will be remembered as "The Pit", one of the many features in RFA that will not be forgotten.

True Colors

As we move into the new school, it is important that we all know how to work peacefully and efficiently. RFA's Challenge Day, on December 20th, 2001 was meant to do just that. It was intended to help students have a better understanding of not only themselves, but also their fellow classmates and teachers. The student body enjoyed a performance by the True Colors actors, and were then involved in various activities throughout the day. Students found out the "color" of their personality and learned how to accept the diversities of others. Whether you were a green, orange, blue or gold, there was something for everyone to take out of the day. Most students saw and understood the unique qualities of their peers. It was definitely a fun event that students learned from, and it will help in the transition from old to new.

BUSINESS

One Last Look...

As each new school year commences, the Yearbook staff begins on yet another production of the De-O-Wair-Sta, hoping to make it better than the last. We would not be able to make this book a success though, without the generosity and support given to us by Rome businesses year after year.

We will now take "One Last Look" at the "old" Rome Free Academy. With excitement and anticipation, enthusiasm and high hopes we look forward to the new school. We leave behind a legacy, one that can never be erased, nor altered. It is the memories that we have made here, that will remain in our hearts and minds forever.

-Kristen L. Scanlon, Business Editor

My Favorite Quote...
"I wanted a perfect ending. Now I've learned the hard way, that some poems don't rhyme, and some stories don't have a clear beginning, middle, and end. Life is about not knowing, having to change, taking the moment and making the best of it, without knowing what's going to happen next."

-Gilda Radner

Sale-lebrities! Jacklyn Mendiola and Jamie Hinman used their allure and 'super selling skills' to sell the most ads in this year's book. They tied for the most ads, both receiving the grand prize of $40. This is Jacklyn's second year as super seller!

In Memory Of Justin Richardson

Justin was an avid outdoorsman. He loved to ski, hunt, camp and was president of the BOCES conservation club. Justin was a lifelong friend to many who treasured his friendship. Justin's personality also allowed those who didn't know him as well to feel like a valued friend.

FRIENDS

A friend is a friend that's with you till the end.
A friend is someone that never wrongs you.
A friend is a person that has your back in a fight.
A friend is someone that stays with you at night.
A friend is a man that has no fear of failure.
A friend is a friend that calls when you're sick.
A friend is a person that makes you happy.
A friend is a kid that comes to your party.
Many people lost a friend on November twenty-sixth.
A boy of eighteen was taken from us for no reason at all.
A boy that never made his mark.
A boy with more kindness than most.
This boy will never be forgotten.
His friends will cry and family mourn.
Many old friends and new will grieve for time, but in the end he will want us to move on.
Justin Richardson was a friend of mine and a friend to all.
Rest In Peace brother, and love from us all.

Brian Barton

This page in loving memory of Justin Richardson. Thank you for all the wonderful memories. You will be greatly missed. Pictures donated by his friends at RFA and LINKS.

Such a joy it has been to watch you become the wonderful young woman you are that it's hard to accept the idea you will soon be on your own. But any feelings of sadness quickly fade when we realize that, in your own way, you will be changing the world and the best is yet to come.

With boudless love and admiration,

My Darling Jessica,

You have been the song in my heart since
the moment you were born.

I wish you enough...

Sun to keep your attitude bright
Rain to appreciate the sun more
Happiness to keep your spirit alive
Pain so that the smallest joys in life appear much bigger
Gain to satisfy your wanting
Loss to appreciate all that you possess
'Hello's" to get you through the "Good-bye's".

I wish you enough.

I love you,

Kristen Scanlon

Kristen,

You are the last of the 5 Scanlon sisters to graduate from the "old" RFA. As you close its doors, you will leave many wonderful memories. What you also will leave, are the many indelible marks left on the people you have touched throughout your voyage from Kindergarten through 12th grade. From being such a wonderful friend to your classmate that died when you were only in Kindergarten, to throughout this past year, so passionately writing and documenting the stories of the World War II veterans before they became silent.

Your achievements, both in and out of school, have exceeded all that we could have ever hoped for. You are a joy and inspiration to all who know and love you- and so very beautiful, both inside and out.

So continue your life's journey Kristen Leigh Scanlon- for your very best is yet to be!

Much, Much Love- Mom and Dad

Lisa Magee

Lisa,
You have the ability to attain whatever you seek;within you is everything you can imagine. Always aim higher than you believe you can reach. So often, you'll discover that when your talents are set free by your imagination, you can achieve any goal. If people offer their help or wisdom as you go through life, accept it gratefully. You can learn much from those who have gone before you. But never be afraid or hesitant to step off the accepted path and head off in your own direction, if your heart tells you that it's the right way for you. Always believe that you will ultimately succeed at whatever you do, and never forget the value of persistance, discipline, and determination, and the love that we have for you. You are meant to be whatever you dream of becoming. Love Always,
Your Family

A Friend I've Grown To Love

You are a shining star from the night above
You are a friend I've grown to love
With your bright glowing smile and nice
Warm hugs
Your sweetness and caring
You are very understanding
You are a friend I've grown to love
In good times and bad
We help each other the best we can
To make each other smile
To make each other laugh
To be there to comfort when we need to cry
You are a friend I've grown to love
I'll always be here for you no matter what
The one you can trust
The one who believes in you when no one else does
You are a friend I've grown to love
When you need to talk I am here to listen,
To help,
To share and care
Keep the faith and hope
Follow your dreams that need to be followed
Follow the love we share as friends
You are an angel
You are a friend I've grown to love

Yearbook Staff...

As we embarked on this collaborative work, our theme 'One Last Look' proved to be a challenge. Each member of the staff wanted to indelibly etch their stamp on this historic book. The ideas were diverse and the opinions were abundant. The book coalesced as the word 'compromise' became more prevalent. The staff was small in size but not in energy and heart. Sometimes overwhelmed by the demands of deadlines, the students (and sometimes the advisors) would become discouraged, but they persevered. As we take 'one last look', the final product is one we are proud to leave as a memorial to our

Ms. Cataldo, no more WHITE OUT! just give me a new sheet. Jack, come here, I gotta tell you something...We had some hectic, crazy days but managed to make it through!

Great Job Everyone! "They love to tell you stay inside the lines, but something's better on the other side."

Jacklyn Mendiola

Scan – who does that? Stop moving your hands! Chet – sorry I had to beat you! Mr. Mazz – do you want me to do all these ones? Yes! Ms. C it'll all be done don't worry!

Thanks for all the great times guys!

Remember "life is short but sweet for certain!"

Jamie Hinman

-Jam-ee -Ms. Cataldo's word of the day -Mendi, thanks for cropping all my pictures -Chet, spell it, don't say it! -It was tight, but we pulled it off! Thanks for a great year!

Kristin Tuthill

I can't believe we're finally done! Mr. Mazz – we made it! See you next year Ms. C!! Tara – what happened to all of the jokes? Hey Jamie! Are you busy, right now? You want to help me?? This year has been great! I'll miss you guys!

Chet DiBari, III

Random quotes heard from Yearbook:

" Jack, can you crop this?"
"Can I have your I-ttention, please?"
"Jack, I need some help!"
"Ooh Chet, I have a great idea for you!"
"Howcome Chet got all his ads in?
"Jack, can you tell me again?"
"Kris, got anymore pages for me to do?"
"Oh wait, what did you say Jack?"

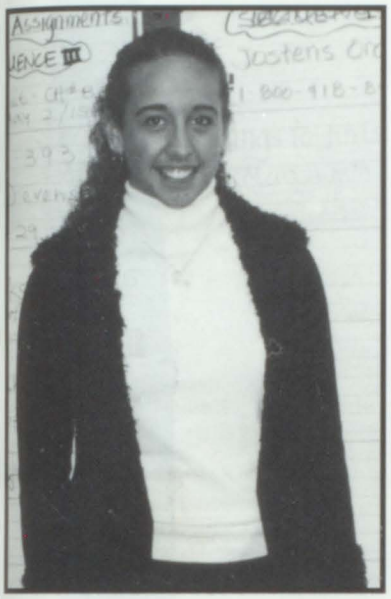
Looks Back

Jennifer Besig

Hey Fi- where is that whiteout for the 10th time. I dunno Fi, you and your crazy ideas, well...uh...yeah you know. At least we got everything finished.
Thanks for a great year Mr. Mazz & Mrs. C.

Brittany Fiorini

Jen, How many times do I have to tell you that I used up all the whiteout? Yo I don't know what I'm doin over here ...ahhhh... someone help me! Ya just chill... it's all good!
- Fi



Kayla Ciaralli

That's ok I'm wearing my Club Avalon shirt today for the yearbook. Nicolina I can't figure out these dimensions can you help me?

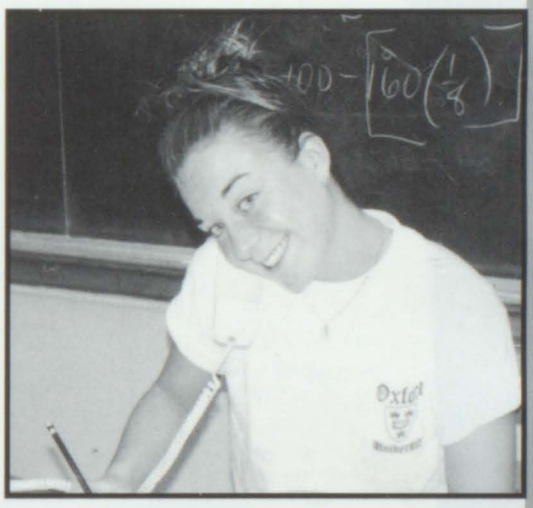
It's gone Fi used the whole bottle!

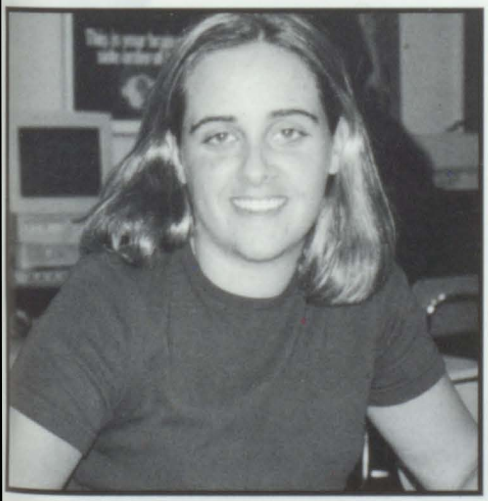
Amber Howland

Yearbook, 8th period was an experience. Meeting deadlines, the printer never worked. Mr. Mazz I am your favorite. The boxes aren't only my responsibility. Catie C+ is bad! Where we goin' what are we doin'? It's been fun! Good luck next year.

Nicolina Calandra

Kayla did you hear what they did yesterday? They took another one without us!
Sure Kayla I can help you. Where's the whiteout, it's ALL-wrong.
Mr. Mazz when is the deadline? It's tomorrow you have to be done by 2:30.
Mrs. Cataldo are these dimensions right? Can you please help me ?





Catie Daniels

Tara "they don't understand you like I do...." Amber "C+" ha ha, you know you can't stay mad.
Mr Mazz, I did more work than it looked like.
Ms. Cataldo thanks for finding that picture.

Tara Baker

Catie, you know you want to 'm/o'. Amber, I'll change her just wait. Mr. Mazz, it never mattered how much work I did for you, it was never enough! Ms. Cataldo, look at me hard at work on the telephone, like always.
